HUNTER 56 VOTES

Anti-Hunter Combine Refuse to Vote and Break Quorum.

EFFORTS TO WITHDRAW HUNTER.

Paris, Kentucky, March 27.—It was authorities here today that the anti-Hunter combination has broken up.

DEATH OF MRS. M. L. DAVIDSON.

Frankfort, March 27.—It was authorities here today that the anti-Hunter
combination has broken up.

The vote today was 56 for Hunter, 48 for Hunter, only Hunter men voting. There being no quorum of course there was no election. This action on the part of the anti-Hunter combination has been overhauled for a day or so in their conversation and was not unexpected. It is believed the combine is playing the wiles to win before Wednesday of next week.

WEALTH FOR A POOR MAN.

A Paris Man Made Happy By a $50,000 Bequest.

Paris, Ky., March 27.—There is joy in the household of Harry Weselman, a houseman in indigent circumstances here, who has just received notice that a wealthy aunt who resided in Cincinnati had made him her heir by which he comes into possession of property worth $50,000.

A WASHINGTON STORY.

That Governor Bradley Will Vote
With the Democrats—It Elected.

Washington, March 27.—It is currently reported about the capital in connection with the senatorial fight at Frankfort, that Governor Bradley has promised Senator Blackburn that if elected he will vote with the Democrats in everything but the tariff.

GERMANY WITHDRAWS.

On Account of the Refusal of England to Assist.

Cases, March 27.—It is understood here that the Admirals have invited the Turkish Commander to reoccupy Malaga under protection of the international fleet with the promise to shell the insurgents should they attack him. But the Commander declined on the ground that his troops are too much demoralized.

TWO MEN DROWNED.

John and James Fultz Meet Watery Graves at Eddyville.

Eddyville, March 27.—While out in the rapid waters of the Cumberland this morning a skiff in which were John and James Fultz was upset and both young men were Still Considering the Tariff.

Washington, March 27.—The House of Representatives is still indoubtfully considering and discussing the tariff bill under the five minute rule.

Mrs. Hull Davidson Dead.

Lexington, March 27.—Mrs.
Davidson, wife of Hull Davidson, editor of the "Argonaut," died this morning.

IT IS DOUBTFUL.

Just Whom This Very Laughter Joke Is On.

Mr. J. J. Sanderson, who lives near Maxon's Mills, and Mr. Lee Potter, a candidate for sheriff, have bored and bugged almost alike. Mr.
Sanderson was in the city yesterday, and left his horse hitched near the Harlow-Pitts Shoe Company, and by coincidence Mr. Potter hitched his only a few feet away.

Mr. Ed Ware afterwards met Mr.
Potter and borrowed his turnout to visit the county. It happened, however, that he got Mr. Sanderson's rig, instead of Mr. Potter's, and started out the Hinkleville road.

After he had driven through the back water and gotten about five miles out he met Mr. Dick Allen, who offered to sell him a horse. Mr.
Ware replied that there was no use buying one when he could borrow one. The conversation led to an inquiry as to the ownership of the rig, and Mr. Ware said it belonged to Mr. Potter. Mr. Allen soon convinced him that it didn't, whereupon

Mr. Ware had to turn around and come back.
In the meantime Mr. Sanderson was vainly searching for his horse and buggy, and when Mr. Ware got back it was all explained. They are all wondering whom the joke is on.
FOR CHARITY.

Entertainment Largely Attended
Last Night.

Elks' Hall was packed last night, exemplifying the generous spirit that responded to the call of charity. The literary and musical entertainment was given for the flood sufferers, and a good sum was netted. The program was most entertaining.

PLUCKY CHAMBERMAID.

Hauled Frank Boone Out of the Water.

Frank Boone, of South Sixth street, yesterday underwent the novel experience of being rescued from back water by a plucky chambermaid.
He was in a skiff near the St.
Nicholas hotel on South Third when the boat was capsized and he was precipitated up to his neck in water.
The young woman, alive to the jeopardy of the young man, wasted not a moment in going to the rescue and succeeded in hauling him out, happy but very damp.

TIN HORN GAMBLERS

They Ought to Be Run Out of Paducah.

The Police Know Them, and There Is No Excuse For Letting Them Remain.

The authorities should at once take steps to drive the "tin horn" gamblers from Paducah. There are thieves here who walk the streets in perfect freedom, and are known to the authorities as thieves, and still they are allowed to remain.

Scarcely a night passes that some one is not robbed of large sums of money by these low resort villains. In most cases the victims, to escape outrage, do not report their loss to the police. It is unsafe to permit them to remain, and there is no plausible excuse for allowing them to remain here longer. The police know them, and that is sufficient. Cairo and Metropolis are allowed to unload their "tin horn" gamblers and professional robbers on Paducah, and it should be forthwith stopped. When a man is too tough for Cairo he ought to lay down and crawl in a hole. He wouldn't have to go far then before he reached a climate sufficiently warm for him.

A night of two ago a man was robbed at a certain place of $140, and while it is known who got it, it cannot at present be proven.

RECOMPENSED AT LAST.

Thrilling Experience of a Newspaper Reporter.

Came Near Getting Thrown in the Back Water By One Who Remembered Him.

A certain newspaper reporter who would be recognized anywhere by his vivid imagination, had a thrilling experience a day or two ago. He was wading his way across the long plank walk that spanned the water at the ferry landing, at the foot of Court street, when a well known female character of the town started from the other end of the elevated promenade.

She is a muscular woman, and they met on the narrow pathway in the middle of the plank.
She recognized and seized him.
"You've been writing me up a long time," she mildly declared, with reproach in her tone.

"I-I expect you are mistaken," he faltered, looking for something laughable to hold to.

"I'm going to throw you in this water," she firmly proceeded, "and then I guess I'll be even, and you'll be more careful hereafter."

"Please let me by," pleaded the trembling scribe, as his captor began pushing him towards the water.
The people on the bank began to yell in intense delight, but they were soon disappointed, for fortunately the woman was recently converted and her better nature finally prevailed, and she let her victim go, with the admonition to write her up no more. He says he will heed it.

WITNESSES ABSENT.

The Case Against Fred Weymouth Left Open.

Fred Weymouth, the young man charged with obtaining drugs by false pretenses from Bacon & Co., druggists, a few days ago, and supposed to be an escaped lunatic, was presented for trial in Justice Winchester's court this morning, and one witness was heard. Some of the others, were absent, however, and the case was left open until Wednesday.

Helm and Bolin, charged with breaking down Henry Sievers' fences in the county, are on trial this afternoon.

A LIBERAL DONATION.

Clothing for the Poor Given by the Hebrew Ladies.

The Hebrew Ladies' Benevolent Society this afternoon sent a large quantity of clothing, bedding and other articles of comfort and necessity to Marshal Collins at the city hall to be distributed among the poor and needy. The gift betokens much generosity on the part of ladies, who always liberally respond to the appeal of the suffering.

AN ESTIMABLE LADY.

Death of Mrs. Pattie Crawford
Today.

Mrs. Pattie Crawford, aged 51, died this morning at her home, 212 North Twelfth street. She was a well-known and highly respected lady, and leaves four children.
The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, with service by Rev. Cave. The burial will be at Oak Grove.

M. J. SCHAAD'S SUCCESSOR.

He Will Be Chosen at the Y. M. C. A.
C. A. Tonight.

State Secretary Rosevear Arrived in the City this Afternoon.

in the city this afternoon, and tonight a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. directory will be held, at which several names will be presented by Secretary Rosevear from which to select a successor to Secretary Schaad.
The name of the successful young man cannot even be surmised, but he will be a resident of Paducah.
It is claimed that a Y. M. C. A. secretary has to have a regular training before he becomes qualified to successfully hold the position, and no young gentleman of the city has had this. It has been suggested since Secretary Schaad's resignation was made public, that his successor be a Paducahan.

RETIRING SEC. SCHAAD

Takes Leave of the Y. M. C. A.
Here.

Was Met By Many of the Members Last Night.

Popular Secretary Schaad, of the Y. M. C. A., met his members to take leave of them at the Association headquarters last night.

The secretary leaves Monday for Danville, Ill.
A social meeting was first held last night, after which order was called by President R. E. Ashbrook.

Secretary Schaad followed in a brief farewell address, expressing the kindest feelings and most commendable advice for the members of the Association.

President Ashbrook, in behalf of the Association, then told how the Association regretted to lose the Secretary, and expressed best wishes for him in his new home.

Messrs. C. Q. C. Leigh, G. B.
Lyne and Wm. Clemens were appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions.

CAPTAINS CHOSEN

Who Will Lead the Y. M. C. A.
Contest.

Messrs. R. G. Caldwell and Eli Boone to Command the "Black Cats" and "Yellow Kids."

The Y. M. C. A. contest is well under way. Last night a meeting was held for the purpose of completing arrangements for it, and Messrs. R. G. Caldwell and Eli Boone were chosen captains of the respective sides.

Appropriate names were then discussed, and as forecast in the Six several days ago, one side was named "Black Cats" and the other "Yellow Kids." Mr. Boone is captain of the first-named and Mr. Caldwell of the latter.

A portion of the sides were chosen at a meeting several days ago, and the intention was to finish last night, but so much time was consumed that it was deferred until Monday night, which will witness the inauguration of active work.

JUDGE SAUNDERS

Paid His Respects to Metropolis Officers Today.

HE ROASTED 'EM 'GOOD.'

Paducah Authorities Very Indignant at Their Discomfey.

THIS MORNING'S POLICE COURT.

Judge Saunders administered a good "roasting" to the authorities of Metropolis, Ill., at this morning's session of his court.

It grew out of the unprecedented discharge from custody of Will Hatfey, wanted here for stealing Will Thompson's skiff.

Judge Saunders said that it was so seldom the authorities there caught anyone, he guessed, that they wanted to hold on as long as possible to a culprit when they do get one. When Hatfey left here and disappeared of skiff at Metropolis, Marshal Collins not only notified Marshal Crouch that Hatfey was wanted here on a felony charge, but sent the warrant as well. An officer was sent after the prisoner, who agreed to return without a requisition, but the authorities there wouldn't give him up because he had a mere pittance of a fine to serve there for drunkenness.
When he served this he was turned loose.

Judge Saunders said it had been customary for officers to show some courtesy to each other, and that he was confident the Paducah officers had always extended very favor to the Metropolis officers, who have a poor way of acknowledging it.

He added that he not only intended to let them get their prisoners the best way they can hereafter whenever they come up to Paducah, but is going to at once take steps to find out if there is not some law on the Illinois statute books holding an officer liable for such flagrant neglect of duty. He said he wanted the people of Metropolis to know just what kind of officers they had over there.

The case against Max Woods, charged with being implicated in the theft of Thompson's skiff, was dismissed, and he was completely exonerated.

Judge Saunders said he did not think Woods had anything to do with the offense. The witnesses in the case could not be gotten here from Metropolis.

Dr. Covington, the principal witness, refused to come probably because he was afraid to. There is now a judgment in Judge Winchester's court against him here for $25 and ten days in jail for carrying a pistol and trying to shoot some Paducah men while he was on this side of the river with women of Metropolis several months ago.

George Warren, a nephew of Officer Jeff Barnhart, was before the police court today charged with striking a colored girl, the daughter of W. C.
Edwards, who works at McCutchen's tobacco stemmer. The girl claimed that the boy ran against her near Seventh and Clay streets yesterday, and then abused her, striking her with a rock.

Without provocation she called him a nigger, and he refused to retaliate it, knocked his hat off and came near doing him the same way. He then struck her with a rock. When Edwards was apprised of the trouble he ran out of the tobacco factory with a stick and chased the boy home, but claimed he didn't intend to hit him.
The case was left open.

George Goodman, colored, was brought before Judge Saunders this morning on a charge of striking Octavia Hunt, of similar hue.

The case against Bud Elrod, for using insulting language towards Adolph Rothstein, was partially heard and left open.

There was no evidence to show that John and Thomas Moran and Will Thompson, tramps, sold jewelry without a license, and the case was dismissed.

DIRE PREDICTIONS

From the Signal Service Department at Washington.

Major Dunwoody Says the Mississippi Will Rise 15 Days Longer.

A special to the "Globe-Democrat" from Washington, says:
Maj. Dunwoody, of the Signal Service, said today that the reports received by the Weather Bureau today indicated that the rise in the Mississippi below Cairo would continue for fourteen days to come.

It is going to be fearful. The greatest height has not yet been reached at Cairo and will not be for two weeks. Much greater damage may be expected to occur than has yet taken place. All persons whose property is now in danger should take warning and remove what they can of their belongings to a place of safety. If they do not, their property is likely to be engulfed and their lives may pay the penalty of their procrastination.

"Where is this water coming from which is expected to swell the flood?"
"It is in the upper rivers now."

"Where do you look for the greatest damage to come from the increased volume of water?"
"In eastern Arkansas and northern Louisiana."

"Are any of the large cities in danger?"
"No, I think not. Around the large cities the levees are strong."

"How about New Orleans?"
"The government levees are stronger than ever before, but the water is going to be higher than it ever went before. The engineers expect the levees to stand the strain. If they should not God knows what would happen."

ONE WEEK OFF

Is the Democratic Primary Election.

The Approaching Week Will Be Full of Campaign Bustle.

There has been unusual activity today among the Democratic candidates for county offices, because the primary election is but one week from today.

A great many of them went to the county, but a large majority remained here and approached the voters who came in from the county. Thus far there have been no campaign fights, although the canvases have been quite spirited. One week from today, however, there will be many disappointed candidates. The few who win next Saturday will be disappointed later—about November.

NEO HAMILTON DEAD.

Took a Sudden Departure Last Night.

Was a Well Known Colored Character of Paducah.

Ned Hamilton, a well-known dis-tiller and colored character of the city, died last night at his home, corner of Third and Tennessee, after a brief illness.

Hamilton had been employed about the market house for many years, and leaves a wife and three children. He was about 33 years old. He had been ill but two days.

IN JAIL

This Is Where Noah Franklin Will Probably Remain.

His Attorney's Will Probably Make No Effort to Get Bail.

H. W. M. Reed, of Benton, came up last night. He is one of Noah Franklin's attorneys, and when asked if any effort would be made to obtain bail for the alleged murderer of Daisy Sullivan, he said that it had not been decided, as such an attempt would entail a cost and waste of time agreed as the trial itself. All the more witnesses, in case a suit of habeas corpus were taken out or motion for bail were made, would have to be examined, and the probabilities are that Franklin will remain in jail until June, when court meets again.

A great many people regard the commonwealth's continuance of the case an infallible evidence that the proof it has secured is not sufficient to convict Franklin.

Crumbaugh to Be Seated.

The Bell-Crumbaugh contest committee met last night and decided upon its report. The majority will favor Crumbaugh, the contestee.
They are Chairman Clark (Rep.), Senators Noe (Gold Dem.), Dingus (Rep.), Rumman (Rep.) and James (Rep.). A minority report will be made in favor of Captain Bell by Senators Hays and C. B. Martin silver men. The reports will be very brief. Maj. Crumbaugh is now certain to retain his seat, as the gold Democrats will vote in favor of the majority report, which will be signed by one of their party, Mr. Noe.

They say that the case is very clear for Crumbaugh, the charges being based solely upon clerical errors.

LEGALLY DEAD

Such is Frank Weatherley, Formerly of Paducah.

Some Matters Appertaining to Real Estate Deals.

Mr. Harvey Kidd today filed a suit in the circuit court to have declared dead the interest of Frank S. Weather-ley, formerly of Paducah, in the property adjoining Judge Bishop's residence on Broadway, near Tenth street.

Frank S. Weatherley is legally a dead man, for he has not been heard from for over seven years, and the law, after this number of years has elapsed, presumes that he is dead.

Weatherley was one of Mrs. Harriet Weatherley's heirs, and all the other heirs decided Mr. Kidd their interest in the property some years ago. The last heard of the remaining heir he left Guatemala in 1920 for San Francisco and has never since been heard from.

MODJESKA THE GRAND.

Paine's Celery Compound the Best of Remedies

For the Nervous Exhaustion Consequent Upon Her Arduous Work—The Remarkable Artiste Who stands Pre-Eminently at the Head of her Profession.

The news of Modjeska's from the recent severe sickness that compelled her to leave the stage will be a source of congratulation to the whole world.

Modjeska, in a letter to Wells, Richardson & Company, says she has found (what thousands of people in every station of life have so often heartily testified that Paine's celery compound is the very best of all remedies for nervous exhaustion.

Joseph Hawthorn rightly calls Modjeska "the peerless queen of artistes."

Modjeska's health is a matter of world wide interest, and her testimony to the value of the great remedy that makes people well is of particular moment in the early spring, when from every quarter reports come of men, women and children who are taking Paine's celery compound, and are gaining in vigor, weight and every other indication of better health.

The thoughtful portion of the community knows the need of purifying the blood and regulating the nervous and alimentary system. There is a danger that in their eagerness to take a spring remedy, a thoughtless person may carry home some bogus concoction prepared with only such a smattering of medical knowledge as can be picked up behind the counter.

The most overwhelming testimony to the value of Paine's celery compound that has recently appeared from men and women of national reputation.

"Great Damage at Metropolis." Metropolis claims to be high and dry, and not the least "petered" by the high water. Here is what a Metropolis dispatch to the "Louisville Times" has to say of the situation:

Metropolis, Ill., March 26.—This city presents a sorry appearance in consequence of the flood of the Ohio. The river at this point is one vast sea. Many dwelling-houses are submerged. The Southern Hotel and about a dozen other houses are complete wrecks.
